

Olga Mula Hernandez, Université Paris Dauphine, Ceremade

Optimal State Estimation Algorithms

Abstract: In this talk, we summarize recent results on optimal algorithms to address state estimation problems where the goal is to compute a fast reconstruction of the state of a physical system from available measurement observations and the knowledge of a physical PDE model.